

ABOUT US

The Mongolian Mineral Processing Association is a non-governmental organization with independent operation that voluntarily unites mining industries, scientific and vocational organizations and institutes, private companies, individuals, groups of all type of ownership existed in the country throughout Mongolia, applying and introducing the latest scientific and technological innovations for mineral processing, operation and its development. The organization was established in Erdenet city on June 18, 1998. In 2017, we moved to Ulaanbaatar city and currently have over 100 companies and 850 members.

OUR PARTNERS

