

MAIN DIRECTIONS OF ACTIVITY

1. We participate in the drafting of legislation related to the mining sector's activities, to comment on relevant legal documents and projects.
2. Execute supervise and technical advisory services on mining and enrichment operations, selection and regulation of plants technology.
3. To disseminate information on the results of mineral processing sector research and development of advanced technology, to develop professional books and textbooks.
4. To work with organizations of the same international goal and provide their members with information.
5. Organize training of qualification grade for mineral processing technology, improve professional skill and ensure that equal opportunities for all members.
6. Protecting members legal right and providing service for them
7. Supporting the introduction and adaptation of scientific and technological advances for mineral processing
8. Execute supervise and technical advisory services on mining and enrichment operations, selection and regulation of plant technology.

Books and magazines edited by our member of scientists

"Mineral processing" international conference photos

